NATIONAL YOUTH ORCHESTRA OF CANADA

Naomi Woo, conductor
SIBELIUS Symphony No. 2
RAVEL La Valse

The National Youth Orchestra of Canada has represented Canada on the world stage since it was founded in 1960. Their performances are on the level of any professional orchestra in the country due to intensive training and youthful energy. Sibelius's Second Symphony captures the ruggedness and stark beauty of the Canadian Shield as well as it does the landscape of his native Finland.

CARMINA BURANA

For 45 years, the Iseler Singers, Elora Festival and Festival of the Sound have championed great music. This once-a-generation performance of Carl Orff's iconic Carmina Burana is not to be missed.

Daniel Vnukowski, piano;
Moshe Hammer, violin;
James Campbell, clarinet;
Jaclyn Grossman, Yiddish narrator & soprano

3:30 PM

QUARTET FOR THE END OF TIME

Olivier Messiaen's life was turned upside down when he was interned in a POW camp at the beginning of the War, forcing him to seek refuge in his music and his Catholic faith. The result is considered the greatest chamber music work of the 20th century.

Gryphon Trio;
James Campbell, clarinet
MESSIAEN Quartet for the End of Time

WED JUL 24

7:30 PM

BRAHMS, RAVEL & HAROLD LLOYD

End your day with a laugh, and don't miss the experience of witnessing creativity in action as Ilya Poletaev improvises music to accompany Harold Lloyd's legendary comedy "Safety Last." Jamie Sommerville, horn; Scott St. John, violin; Ilya Poletaev, piano; Penderecki String Quartet
